

Anash Interactive Wordsearch Puzzle #1

www.anashinteractive.com

1. The Tlingit and _____ peoples of the Northwest Coast are closely related. [Haida]
2. The two North Coastal Tlingit moieties are Eagle, and _____. [Raven]
3. Tlingit society is matrilineal, which means kids belong to the clan of this parent. [mother]
4. A large ceremonial Tlingit gathering is called a _____. [potlatch]
5. The three main colours in contemporary Tlingit art are red, black, and _____. [blue]
6. The cone-shaped hats worn by the Tlingit are made of either Spruce or _____. [cedar]
7. _____ culture is passed down in spoken rather than written form. [Oral]
8. This sea mammal was well known for its soft, waterproof hide, and was the basis for trade between the Russian and Tlingit peoples. [Sea otter]
9. The Tlingit word for "Thank you" is _____. [Gunal cheesh]
10. Today, most American Tlingits live in this state _____. [Alaska]
11. Today, most Canadian Tlingits live in this territory _____. [Yukon]
12. A traditional Tlingit custom is to burn the bodies of the dead. This is called _____. [cremation]
13. In a traditional Tlingit community, the Shaman was in charge of healing the _____. [sick]
14. These important Tlingit people never cut their hair. [Shaman]
15. This fish was a staple of the traditional coastal Tlingit diet. [salmon]
16. Potlatches were traditionally most often held during this season, when Tlingits had more leisure time. [winter]